

Value Added Tax

In 2015, Germany implemented an EU regulation that changed the way VAT is charged in the European Union. As a result, the VAT rate applicable for digital services will be the local rate charged in the country of the client. The reason is that all businesses are obliged to transfer any value-added tax payments received to the financial authorities in those countries. - Please state your country of residence that we should use for tax purposes.

Related Articles

- Value Added Tax
- Swiss private customers and European business customers